REMEMBERING OUR PAST—Part III

We are only 3 weeks away from our Grand Jubilee Mass with Bishop Michael Barber on July 10th. This special Mass will be celebrated at 10:00AM. Please remind your friends and family that our regularly scheduled Sunday Masses at 8:30am, 11:00am and the Polish Mass at 12:30 will be merged into this one big celebration at 10:00am.

This week, we continue to share some recollections and reflections about the history of our Parish. Today we publish some of the personal reflections and experiences of another long time parishioner, ZENY BARAAN.

“My family members have been parishioners for 40 years. Our children and grandchildren have received catechetical instruction and the sacraments of baptism, reconciliation, 1st communion, confirmation and marriage here (...)

In the past, in the main altar of the Church was the cross of Jesus, and then it was replaced with the replica of Our Lady of Good Counsel. The chairs used for services were replaced by donated pews and flooring was re-constructed. Since there was no hall, some parish social functions were held in the church or in front of the church. Catechetical instruction with diligent teachers divided classes into sections inside the church to accommodate students (...)

There were also devotions started by dearly departed Mrs. Parafina for our Lady of Penafrancia with processions from the Church to the Marina Park with participation of children dressed in white. On Holy Friday, the station of the cross was also done outside the church. There was the Simbang Gabi (a Filipino tradition). Devotion to the Black Nazarene was also started by Gloria Garcia in 2000. These are done up to now in addition to the other novenas (...)

Some of our previous parishioners have chosen to follow the path of the Lord: our dearly departed Marcie Fong (CCD Coordinator) who became a nun; Noe Tuason is now a deacon serving at Saint John the Baptist Church in San Lorenzo; and Geoffrey F. Baraan, now Father Geoffrey Baraan at Saint Anne's Parish in Union City (...)

We want to thank the community of Our Lady

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's almost midsummer day! One of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar occurs this week. There are only three "nativity" feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist on June 24. Friday's date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child's advent, but of Elizabeth's child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, kindling "St. John's Fires" in the long summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist's own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach this week and plunge in to recall your baptism? It's a tradition!

Q. Can divorced individuals become godparents or sponsors for baptism and confirmation?

Catholic
Answers apo2

A. If the person in question is living a life in keeping with the Church's expectations for someone in that situation, yes.

On the other hand, if the person does not have a Church annulment and is in a romantic relationship or has attempted remarriage outside the Church, then that person is not living "a life of faith that befits the role to be undertaken [i.e., baptismal or confirmation sponsor]," as required by canon law (CIC 874), and so another candidate for the role should be chosen

Q. Why were God's commandments limited to ten? It seems that the additions of "Thou shall not rape," "Thou shall not condone slavery," and "Thou shall not abuse children" would all be appropriate additions to the list.

A. There are only ten commandments in the Old Testament because those commandments are a synthesis of the natural law. Other sins are classified by moral theologians under the existing Old Testament commandments. The additions you suggest would fit in various places under commandments 4–10, which deal with how to treat other people.

(Matt. 25:32–33) and they are saved by the blood that he shed for them (Matt. 26:28).

Help us keep good old memories of OLGC alive. If you have old pictures or events taken in OLGC (20 to 50 years ago) that we may include in our Golden Jubilee souvenir book you may drop it in the parish office and after scanning we'll give it back to you.
