My Dear Parish Family

What a wonderful celebration we had last Sunday and what a tremendous blessing the day turned out to be.

The Parish Golden Jubilee Mass with Bishop Michael Barber as the presider, and the reception in the parish hall went very well. So many joyful memories will stay with us, and countless pictures will carry on those memories for years to come.

I want to express my heart felt gratitude to each and everyone of you for making this celebration such a beautiful, uplifting and memorable event.

Special events like this don't just happen. They require a lot of planning, preparations, and the involvement of many people who work together to make it all happen from beginning to end.

There are so many people to thank and I risk accidentally leaving out some of those involved. So if I have forgotten to mention anyone, please know that it wasn't intentional. With that said I offer thanks to:

Parish Jubilee Committee Members:

Lynne Evans, Orlando Mayor, Leo, Beth, and Gloria Garcia, Evelyn Bonito, Isabel San Agustin, Espie de Castro, Lino Poblete, Liza Marie Nario, Robert Sibal, Paul Groff, Aurora Soriano, Ronnie Ramos, Kathi Ippolito, George Ybanez, Francis Solomon, Cora Tabernero, and Deacon Tom Martin.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The French Revolution is hardly a "treasure" in our story, yet in 1789 it began to dismantle the way the world was organized: feudalism. The collapsed society had three basic divisions: those who work, those who fight, and those who pray. There wasn't a great deal of movement among the ranks, yet one way to move out of the workers and the fighters was in the direction of the folks who prayed. These were the First Estate, the clergy.

One of the key persons in any manor or village was the priest. He could read, at least a bit, and so was the source for pronouncements and news from government and Church. He was assigned to celebrate the sacraments frequently and in conformance with certain rules.

Seminaries did not exist before the Reformation. Astute Protestant reformers then forced the Catholic world toward a more educated and able clergy. Before that, young men apprenticed with a priest to learn the essentials, and would be presented to the bishop for ordination. Other priests emerged from the university system, where students were required to be invested as clerics. Still others were monks, ordained not so much for ministry outside the monastic walls, but to offer Mass only for the intentions of the community's benefactors.

BUY YOUR DINNER AND DANCE TICKET NOW. TICKET REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE IN THE VESTIBULE DURING WEEKEND MASSES. TICKETS ARE ALSO AVAILABLE IN THE PARISH OFFICE

As we pray for peace and end of violence let us pray for members of our community serving as missionaries and those in the military.

Q. How do I address a bishop?

A. In spoken conversation, you would call your bishop "Bishop (last name)" or "Your Excellency." In opening a letter, you would put "Dear Bishop (last name)" or "Your Excellency" ("Dear" is not used in front of "Your [title]"). In addressing an envelope you would put on the first line "The Most Rev. (full name)" and on the second line "Bishop of (diocese)."

Archbishops follow the same protocol as bishops. Cardinals are addressed as "Cardinal (last name)" or "Your Eminence." Letters to cardinals open "Dear Cardinal (last name)" or "Your Eminence." In addressing the envelope the first line would read "(first name) Cardinal (last name)" or "Cardinal (full name)"; the second line would read "Archbishop (or Bishop) of (archdiocese or diocese)."

commandments 4-10, which deal with how to treat other people. (Matt. 25:32-33) and they are saved by the blood that he shed for them (Matt. 26:28).

PRAY DAILY Each Christian needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy; then we need an hour. —St. Francis de Sales

Help us keep good old memories of OLGc alive. If you have old pictures or events taken in OLGc (20 to 50 years ago) that we may include in our Golden Jubilee souvenir book you may drop it in the parish office and after scanning we'll give it back to you.
