CALLED BY GOD

Through the grace of the sacrament of baptism, each person receives a particular vocation (or calling) from God. Most are called to live out their vocations as married persons and others are called to respond to God in their capacity as single persons. Some are called to consecrate their lives to God as religious brothers and sisters. Others are called to consecrate their lives as virgins or as 3rd order Religious. Still others are called to dedicate their lives to God and the church as ordained priests and deacons.

Whatever one's calling may be, discerning it prayerfully and responding to it fully is the key to experiencing God's light and purpose in our lives.

Jesus called the apostles by name to learn from him and to carry on his ministry. He gave them extraordinary powers to baptize, to preach his gospel, to forgive sins and to feed His people with His own body and blood in the Eucharist.

Every Catholic man ought to prayerfully consider if Jesus may be calling him to the priesthood. Often those who are called say that the thought of the priesthood entered their mind and wouldn't go away. They find that time at Mass brings deep peace and joy. Gradually they sense that Jesus may be inviting them in a very personal way to investigate the possibility of the priesthood.

A priesthood candidate needs to have a personal relationship with Jesus. He is a person of prayer and fidelity to the Catholic Church. He is energized by the Church's ministry and seeks to make his particular gifts and talents available for service to the Church. He should be disciplined and responsible, of at least average intelligence and maturity.

Jesus himself was celibate and gave himself completely to his Father's will. Priests in the Roman Rite do not marry. They give their time, energy, love and commitment to those that they serve. Celibacy is not for everyone, but for those who are called to the priesthood it is a way to live and love in the world after the example of Jesus himself, and is not a burden.

Next weekend, January 14th and 15th, is our annual diocesan-wide Seminary collection. In today's bulletin you will find a brochure which introduces you to our 16 seminarians and the different seminaries they are attending. Also you will find special envelope for the Seminary collection.

Please be generous in financially supporting those called to serve in the Oakland Diocese as future priests. Kindly make your checks payable to Our Lady of Good Counsel and notate "Seminary Collection" on the memo line. Thank you for your help.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This year, in the United States the celebration of the Epiphany falls on January 8, but the traditional date for the Epiphany is January 6. The date we know as January 6 was established as the solstice in Egypt in 1996 BC, but the Egyptian calendar lost a full day every 128 years. Twenty centuries later the actual solstice had migrated to December 25. People still kept January 6 for the solstice celebration, but December 25, matching nicely with the Roman pagan feast of the Unconquered Sun, launched an extended solstice holiday. By the time of the early church, the whole period of twelve days was celebrated just about everywhere.

Christians began to celebrate Christ as the true light of the world in four themes: the Nativity, the manifestation to the Gentiles, the baptism of the Lord, and the wedding feast at Cana. That was entirely too much for one day to handle. A twelve-day season was ready to be adapted, so Christians borrowed from the pagan calendar for their own season of light. Thus early Christian celebrations of the Christmas season extended from one date for the solstice, December 25, to the older date, January 6. The darkest time in the Northern Hemisphere could now be filled with the Christian observance of the arrival of the Light of the World.

Please help keep our little church clean and orderly inside and outside

Q. Can condoms be used for family planning?

The only means of "birth control" that the Church allows to be used in family planning is self-control. If a husband and wife has just cause to avoid having children, the husband and wife may use natural family planning (NFP). NFP allows the couple to gauge the woman's fertile times and avoid relations during those times. What is not, and cannot, be permitted is for a husband and wife to engage in relations while blocking the natural result of children. Any means that accomplishes this end is not morally permissible.

Q. Are jeans acceptable attire for Mass?

they are neat and clean with no holes or tears. Even St. Peter's in the Vatican, which has a very strict dress code, permits women to wear jeans. However, your decision to wear jeans should not be based on what "everyone else is doing"; rather, it should be based on what God is calling you to do.

Consider the thoughts of Anthony Cardinal Bevilacqua:

"When you go to Mass, remember to dress appropriately and respectfully, whether you are at home or at the seashore or in the mountains. Many people are less concerned today about "dressing up" for work and school, but we should avoid dressing too casually for God's house. Yes, God accepts us as we are, but the church is a sacred space where God Himself is sacramentally present. "

TRUE HAPPINESS Abandon yourself utterly for the love of God, and in this way you will become truly happy.
—Blessed Henry Suso
