FOOD FOR THE POOR, INC.

"As often as you did it to one of the least of my brothers and sisters, you did it to me." Matt. 25:40

Food For The Poor (FFP) is an interdenominational Christian relief and development organization working primarily in 17 countries in the Caribbean and Latin America. By working together with pastors, missionaries, partner organizations, clinics, community leaders and churches in these regions, we ensure that aid reaches those who need it most.

FFP is celebrating its 33rd year of operation. Since its founding in 1982, Food For The Poor has distributed more than 72,000 containers of aid to the poor, has built more than 100,000 housing units for people in need of safe shelter, and completed more than 2,070 water projects that provide lifesaving water and sanitation to hundreds for thousands of people in need.

From January to June 2015, Food For The Poor shipped 1,818 containers of aid and built 5,138 new housing units for families in need of shelter.

Fundraising and other administrative costs comprise less than 5% of its expenses; more than 95% of all donations go directly to programs that help the poor.

In a survey of the 50 largest U.S. charities, Forbes magazine has given Food For The Poor outstanding ratings of 96% in charitable commitment and 97% in fundraising efficiency. December 2014

Next weekend, November 19-20, Rev. David Deibel will speak at all the Masses about a ministry of the Food For The Poor. He will share personal witness about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Father Deibel was ordained in 1983. Before preaching on behalf of Food For The Poor he was a Campus Minister at St. Mary's College in California and a Chaplain in the U.S. Armed Forces in Europe and U.S. Air Force at Travis AFB. In addition to preaching for Food For The Poor he is a Canon Lawyer for Christian Brothers in Napa.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

With Thanksgiving approaching, we think of the quest of the Puritans who arrived on the Mayflower from their first exile in Leyden, Holland. Like the Catholics of England, they were religious dissenters who suffered penalties for not participating in the worship life of the established church. The Catholics established monasteries, schools, and convents on the continent to assure the vigor of their faith's intellectual and spiritual life. The Puritans fled to the tolerant Netherlands with similar hopes of preserving their way of life, but were unable to adapt to Dutch ways.

There were Catholics who made a similar colonial journey. The hero of the story is George Calvert, Lord Baltimore, the former Secretary of State of Britain and a Catholic. He proposed that King Charles I establish a proprietary colony that he would own and rule, named Maryland in honor of the Catholic Queen Henrietta Maria. George Calvert died unexpectedly in the midst of this project, but his son Cecil faithfully carried out his father's wishes. Maryland became a symbol of freedom for wealthy recusant English families, as well as for the poor who held to the Catholic faith despite great hardship. From the start, the colony was open to Protestants and Catholics equally, and the seeds of the religious freedom so dear to the American spirit were sown with the first colonists in 1634.

Please help keep our Church clean and orderly inside and outside

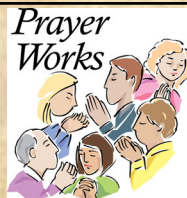

Our Lady of Good Counsel Church would like to invite you to participate in the program entitled "Divine Mercy Evangelization Program". Its goal is to bring awareness to all the faithful of the value of the devotion to Divine Mercy. We wish to fulfill the desire of Jesus that He be known as King of Mercy before He comes as the just Judge in His final coming by means of bringing the Image of the Divine Mercy in every home. As St. Pope John Paul II said "Divine Mercy is the only hope of mankind."

Mechanics of the Program:

- The Image of Divine Mercy stays in your home for eight (8) days.
- The recipient will be given a handbook on how and what to do while the image is at their home.
- After eight (8) days, the family who have the Image will transfer the Image to the next recipient listed in the schedule, (the name, phone number and address will be given prior to transfer).

NO serving of food or donation from recipient is required. Sign up sheet is available at our Church in the vestibule for those who wants to participate and want the Image of the Divine Mercy be brought to their home. You have enough time next year to prepare and welcome the Image into your home and chose a date when you want the Image to visit you. You will receive a reminder a week prior to the date you have chosen.

For further questions, please don't hesitate to call Nellie Casanas at (510) 913-9777.
