WHY A CATHOLIC MAN SHOULD JOIN THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS?

1. The Knights of Columbus are Pro-Family.

Since the traditional family is composed of the husband, wife, and children, the Knights see them as the core, foundation, and fabric for all of society. Although the council meetings are for the members, many councils sponsor activities with the family in mind. It's a great time to gather together as Catholic Christians and members of the Mystical Body of Christ. Realizing that the youth are an integral part of society, the Knights seek to foster the development of the child from adolescence to adulthood. Asking for the intercession of the Holy Family is at the center of prayer for the Knights when it comes to family life.

2. The Knights of Columbus are strongly and devoutly Pro-Life.

Following the teachings of the Catholic Church, they believe that Life begins at conception and ends in natural death. While the Knights are involved in a plethora of activities locally that foster the Pro-Life movement, they are also major supporters of the March for Life in Washington, D.C., the National Prayer for Life Campaign, the Ultrasound Initiative, and the Culture of Life Fund.

3. The Knights of Columbus Supports the Catholic Church.

The order is composed of a fraternity of 1.9 million Catholic Men. From the founding of the Knights of Columbus they have been a foundation of support for the Catholic Church. In recent years, the Knights of Columbus have performed a variety of projects for the Universal Church as well as worked with Bishops and Priests of the particular churches here in the United States and in countries where the Knights currently reside.

4. The Heartbeat of the Knights of the Columbus is Service.

The Knights are one the largest charitable organizations in the world. Through a variety of fundraisers throughout the year, the Knights raise financial support for many charities, including the Special Olympics and the Global Wheelchair Mission. The service aspect of the Knights encompasses the Church, Community, Council, Family, Pro-Life, and Youth.

5. The Knights of Columbus are Faithful to the Catholic Church by being obedient to the teachings of the Church, its Bishops and Priests, and showing fidelity to the Pope.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Until very recent decades "Holy Thursday" and "Good Friday" were centered on personal pious devotions, not public liturgy. In urban America, at least in cities with a significant Catholic population, Holy Thursday was about veneration of the Blessed Sacrament. People were encouraged to walk to seven churches for a "visit" to each parish's repository, a kind of temporary tabernacle on a side altar, closer in proximity to the faithful than the usual tabernacle on the distant high altar. On Good Friday, the most popular form of devotion was the Stations of the Cross, or a three-hour program of word and preaching beginning at noon.

The Holy Thursday seven-church hike was a way of participating in a custom of the city of Rome. Traditionally, each day in Lent was assigned to a particular parish church or basilica in the city. Each week of Lent thus had seven churches, and pious people tried to get to each one of them. The pilgrimage was a symbol of unity and also the journey of faith. Originally, the pope would go to each place for a liturgy, but political strife removed the pope from Rome in 1305. With the papacy relocated in France, the custom ceased until Pope Leo XIII expressed interest in restoring it in 1900, and Blessed John XXIII fully restored the custom in 1959. By the time Pope Leo began to revive the custom, many American cities had enough parishes and monasteries that the faithful could vicariously participate in the revived tradition of stational liturgies by a very long walk!

Q. Did Jesus know that he was God during His entire life?

I had always thought that Jesus knew that He was God for his entire life, even when He was an infant, but lately something I heard caused me to think that perhaps this is not so. Honestly, it caused me to think that perhaps He didn't ever know with absolute certainty while on this earth that He was God. Did Jesus know that He was God during His life on this earth, from the moment of His incarnation, according to the beliefs of the Catholic church?

A The Church has taught that in his divine nature Jesus always knew he was God. How can God not know He is God? However Jesus' human nature was a true human nature and thus cannot be infinite in its knowledge. Jesus' human nature would have grown and developed the much like everyone else but without the hindrance of original sin. Divine knowledge is pure, human knowledge is conceptual and relies on the medians of language or math.

Essentially we can say that Jesus always knew he was God however needed to wait until his human nature acquired the ability, language and concepts to express it.

In Memory of Ben Pineda

our long time and devoted parishioner who for so many years works as Sacristan here in OLGC. He passed away recently. Please remember him in your prayers as well as his family.
