INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES ON MOTHERS

Of all the rights of women, the greatest is to be a mother.
(Lin Yutang, Chinese writer)

The moment a child is born, the mother is also born. She never existed before. The woman existed, but the mother, never.

A mother is something absolutely new. (Rajneesh)

No gift to your mother can ever equal her gift to you – life. (Anonymous quotes)

Mothers hold their children's hands for a short while, but their hearts forever. (Author Unknown)

The heart of a mother is a deep abyss at the bottom of which you will always find forgiveness. (Honore de Balzac)

God could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers. (Jewish proverb)

I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life. (Abraham Lincoln)

The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother. (Author Unknown)

Being a full-time mother is one of the highest salaried jobs... since the payment is pure love. (Mildred B. Vermont)

Mother - that was the bank where we deposited all our hurts and worries. (T. DeWitt Talmage)

When you are a mother, you are never really alone in your thoughts.

A mother always has to think twice, once for herself and once for her child. (Sophia Loren, Women and Beauty)

"Mothers are the strongest antidote to the spread of self-centered individualism... It is they who testify to the beauty of life... A society without mothers would be dehumanized... Without mothers, not only would there be no new faithful, but the faith itself would lose a good part of its simple and profound warmth..."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In many parish churches, more rarely in monastery churches and cathedrals, the tabernacle with the Blessed Sacrament is visible from a doorway or aisle in the church. Normally, a person is to give the proper sign of reverence, a genuflection, when passing in proximity to the tabernacle. The word "genuflect" comes from Latin roots meaning bending (or flexing) the knee. A common-sense exception to the rule is for a sacristan who is taking care of the church and can't be genuflecting every thirty seconds during a vacuum run. Also excepted are persons in procession entrusted with important symbols of the Lord's presence. So, a crossbearer or a minister carrying the Gospel book, or ministers on their way to their Communion stations do not genuflect. For everyone else, the usual sign of reverence for the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament is to genuflect on the right knee.

The oldest form of reverence during prayer in our tradition is standing; kneeling or genuflecting is a sign borrowed from old civic practice. The posture of kneeling, even on one knee, is a sign of submission. Servants would take this position before their masters in the ancient world. It said: I'm not running away, I'm yours, I'm here for you. This is what your genuflection says when you enter a Catholic church where the place of reservation of the Blessed Sacrament is visible to you: I'm yours.

Birthright of San Lorenzo – On this Mother's Day we would like to celebrate all the Mothers who have been the support of their families throughout the year. We applaud your efforts and perseverance in accomplishing all your tasks. Today, we would like you to help new Mothers facing similar challenges by taking home a baby bottle for your spare change so we can continue to aid pregnant Mom's in crisis. Please return bottles to the church when filled. If you have a few hours each week to volunteer at our center, please call 510 481-9677. Thank you for your generosity.

Q. Can a Catholic receive communion if he/she marries a non-Catholic in a Baptist church?

A. If a Catholic marries outside of the Catholic Church without seeking the Catholic Church's approval, the Catholic Church will not consider the marriage to be valid. To live in an invalid marriage without being celibate means that the person is living in the state of mortal sin and may not receive the Eucharist.

First of all, Catholics MAY receive Holy Communion if they are divorced. But may NOT if they have attempted marriage outside of the Catholic Church. To deliberately attempt marriage in this way is a mortal sin. Further; such a person commits a mortal sin every time he or she has sexual relations.

Protestant churches, for the most part do not have validly ordained clergy and therefore do not have a valid Eucharist. The Orthodox churches do, however.

But if she is in the state of mortal sin, to receive a valid Eucharist is the mortal sin of sacrilege. Nothing is worth committing a mortal sin!
