FAMILY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/ CCD

Sunday morning – All grades after 8:30 Mass

Dear Parishioners,

In today's bulletin you will find an insert with the 2016 Parish Annual Financial Report.

On the positive side, our Parish Golden Jubilee celebrations were uplifting events with a majority of the cost covered by your generous financial contributions and vol-untarism. Additionally, a number of new liturgical vessels and clergy vestments were added to our church inventory, some of which came from individual sponsors.

Once again we met and exceeded our goals for the 2016 Bishop's Appeal and maintained our continuous commitment to the Diocesan Capitol Campaign.

We were also able to purchase and install wall mounted heating and air conditioning units for the church to ensure requisite comfort levels when the extreme weather conditions occur.

Looking forward, major parish projects for 2017 will consist of the restoration of our beautiful stained glass windows and the replacement of the church doors.

At the same time we must continue our diligence in ensuring our collection goals are met. Regular Sunday donations must be sufficient to cover day to day operating expenses and improve our parish ministries.

I am confident with the help of our Parish Finance Committee, and using the 2017 budget as a guideline, we will continue to allocate our resources in a most effective manner. I know that God will continue to bless this Parish through you, as I have witnessed many times.

May the Blessed Mother Mary, Our Lady of Good Counsel, always intercede for us and for our families!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Jan Rudzewicz
Pastor

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" post-script aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791 he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world.

Q. Our Bible study teacher made a statement in a DVD session that King David was a priest. Several attendees of the bible study were confused by that statement and want to know if King David was a priest. Any help will be greatly appreciated

A The Cultic Priesthood in Ancient Israel was hereditary — a priest had to be born of tribe of Levi, a descendent of Aaron. Although David was of the tribe of Judah, and therefore was not a Levitical priest, he did exercise some priestly functions. He appears to have offered sacrifices [2 Sam 6:13, 17-18; 2 Sam 24:18-25; and 1 Chr 21:18-28] and David's sons were called priests [2 Sam 8:18]. As such, David was a "type" or foreshadowing of the one who would be totally and perfectly priest, king, and prophet — Jesus, the Son of David and Son of God.

Q. Is there evidence of guardian angels?

A. Here are a few verses: Quote:

"See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Mt 18:10)

"The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them." (Ps 34:7)

"For he will give his angels charge of you to guard you in all your ways." (Ps 91:11)
