Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

Today's Gospel from the Book of Matthew again includes parables. We have been hearing the Lord sharing parables with us throughout our readings in recent weeks. Interestingly Matthew contains 23 parables (or teachings classified as parables), while Luke has 28. Mark has only nine, and John has none.

The first parable we hear today is called The Parable of the Wedding Feast. In this story shared by Jesus for our benefit a king is hosting a wedding feast for his son. He sends out invitations and people ignore them or choose not to respond. It may seem somewhat remarkable to us that people turn down an invitation to a royal wedding feast.

Yet, the Lord invites us to join Him on a regular basis through Holy Scripture and the Sacraments. Many ignore the invitation, and in most cases are not even aware of the fact they have received it. Those who read this are aware of the invitation. The question is "How do we respond?"

What do we do after we attend a Holy Mass? What is our reaction to the reception of Christ's incredible gift in the Eucharist? We may not make light of it like some of the people in the parable, but if we merely go our separate ways, and do not strive to be active disciples, we are basically doing the same thing as those Jesus describes in this parable. In one of his first appearances Pope Francis declared, "Go make disciples of all nations." We cannot make disciples unless we are ourselves disciples.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

God the Father, creator of all things, we thank you for all the gifts you have given us.

*Jesus, our Redeemer,
You've shown us how to use Father's gifts wisely.
Help us to use our individual gifts to the fullest - always in the service of others.*

Encourage us to see the value in other people and to convince them of their own worth.

Holy Spirit, Source of all love, constantly remind us that the gifts we possess are meant for others and that if we do not have love, these talents have no value.

With You, we can call God our Father, with love, we can accomplish many lasting goods.

Amen.

Q. Is the soul immortal?

The Church teaches that the human soul is immortal.

However, Matthew 11:28 says "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell."

Does this mean that the soul can be destroyed in hell?

A. When we say that someone has destroyed his life, we usually mean that he has ruined his life--not that he has committed suicide. He still exists, but in a very sorry state. This is the way Our Lord is speaking in that passage. To choose hell is to destroy one's life in Christ. The soul still exists, but in the sorriest condition.

OLGC MUSIC MINISTRY

"Open Rehearsal October"

Wednesdays 10/04, 10/11, 10/18, 10/25 | 6:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the church. Lift Every Voice, Sing, and Come, Check Us Out!

The OLGC Saturday 5 p.m. Ensemble began weekly rehearsals Wednesday, September 27th.

We are always looking for new members who enjoy singing & has a passion for traditional, sacred & contemporary repertoire in liturgical music. During the month of October, we will have what's called on ALL Wednesday evenings of the month to welcome others who love to praise God through song, and to see what's it like to be a part of this central & important ministry of our church.

"Open Rehearsal October"

Rehearsals are on Wednesday evenings from 6:45 pm to 8:00 pm in the church. (unless noted cancelled via weekly emails) Choir meets on Saturday afternoons at 3:45 and sing for 5 pm Vigil Mass.

If you are interested in getting involved with the Saturday 5 p.m. ensemble, please contact Alvin M. at ajd128@yahoo.com
