Helping our neighbors affected by fires

As the loss of life and property mounts due to the wildfires north of our Diocese, our hearts ache for our sisters and brothers in the Santa Rosa Diocese. Please join with me in praying for the dead and for those who are suffering, whether from physical injury or from the loss of their homes and livelihoods. We also pray for the firefighters, medical personnel, social workers and others who are aiding the victims and their loved ones.

I have spoken with Bishop Robert Vasa, the bishop of Santa Rosa. He is grateful for our prayers, and is providing regular updates on his website: <http://srdiocese.org/signofhope>. He is encouraging everyone to participate in a holy hour of adoration to pray for those affected and for the fires to subside.

I ask all parishes to consider a special collection for the victims of the fires. Please select a weekend to accommodate your parish's calendar, and send the money per our usual process for special collections. We will send immediately to the Santa Rosa Diocese.

Catholic Charities of Santa Rosa (<http://www.srcharities.org/fire-recovery>) is working with other agencies to provide short-term and long-term support for victims. People who are in shelters will need to find temporary housing while their homes are being rebuilt. Monetary donations will be the most useful contribution to that work; you can find information on how to donate at their website. They are also able to accept a limited number of the following items: diapers, baby wipes, face masks, twin size blankets, toiletries, towels and warm adult coats.

Catholic Charities is also in need of bi-lingual volunteers; you may call 707.528.8712, ext. 160, for more details. Sometimes people in shelters appreciate having someone willing to listen and to pray with them. This ministry of presence is truly an act of mercy. I am grateful for your compassion and outreach to our sisters and brothers.

Michael C. Barber, SJ Bishop of Oakland

Following our Bishop request, next weekend, October 28-29, we will have a special second collection for the victims of the fires in conjunction with Saint Vincent de Paul. Please make your check payable to "OLGC" and notate "The victims of the fires" on the memo line. We will send one big check to the Diocese of Oakland and they will immediately transfer all the money collected in parishes to the Santa Rosa Diocese.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

What makes the Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children different from the others? First, there is the intended assembly, which is described as comprised of mostly children of school age. There are three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children available to us now in the missal. The first one has a very simple form, easily grasped by even a young child. The second has a great deal of participation by the assembly—repeated sung acclamations. The third has a number of variations that can be tricky for a priest to handle if he hasn't prepared carefully.

All of this work does point to a true treasure of our tradition: children are part of the Sunday assembly, precisely because they are baptized members of Christ's body. By contrast, the churches of the Reformation tend to look upon children as members in training, and see worship as an adult activity. Sunday school happens downstairs while the adults celebrate Holy Communion upstairs. In a phrase, that's not Catholic. Children belong to Christ and to the assembly. So, the desire to care for the children in the assembly, to draw them into the prayer, and to adapt our rituals and texts to their needs is deeply Catholic, a true pastoral effort to help draw everyone into the praise of God.

The Music Ministry of our parish needs more members who are willing to share their time and love for music. Our Choirs need your voices. This is an open invitation to join and participate in the choir of your choice to sing our praises to the Lord. Singing sacred hymns is praying twice. We have the following from which you can choose from according to your availability:

Q. Does God know the future?

A. Yes. And not only does he know, he ensures it happens. Keep in mind though that there is no "before" and "after" in God. Time is a limitation of our existence, but not God's. There is nothing God doesn't know. He is eternally present which can be a hard concept for us to grasp as to us everything is seen as linear, past present and future. That God can know everything without interfering with the freewill He gave us is mystery in that it hasn't been fully revealed to us and in any event human minds can't contain God's unlimited greatness and ability. C.S. Lewis in his book Mere Christianity described our lives like a line on a piece of paper where we are somewhere along the line. Our view of what is ahead and much of what has past is unclear to us. God's who's existence does not rely on time or space sees the whole page at once. Everything on that line is present to Him
