FAMILY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/CCD

Sunday morning – All grades after 8:30 Mass

FAITH FORMATION/CCD CLASSES

Every day, our children are bombarded with temptations that compromise their Catholic Faith. More than ever before there is an urgent need to provide them with a moral and spiritual education.

We know that the parents, as primary educators, are the first line of catechists for our children. In the family, faith is shared as part of an unfolding daily life. The home, the “domestic church”, provides a place for children to come to understand their faith and learn to love and live it. They learn the most from parental examples set when the family prays together, and actively participates in Mass and the Sacraments. They help their children see what a difference God has made in their own life.

Every year, our Parish provides a religious education program for students who attend public or non-Catholic private schools. Through CCD classes, we strive to support parents in their important work by continuing their religious education that begins at home. Second graders are prepared for the reception of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. Eighth graders, and older, are prepared for the reception of Confirmation.

CCD classes begin this Sunday, September 17th, and are offered each Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. This allows time for families to attend Mass either before (at 8:30 a.m.) or afterwards (at 11:00 a.m.).

There is an insignificant nominal fee involved in support of books and other class materials. Classes are held between September and May (roughly).

Our CCD Program is always looking for volunteers who want to teach their Faith and share their love of Christ with the young generation. If you feel called to this ministry, please contact our CCD Coordinator, Nadine Ramos, or call the parish office.

As one of the volunteers once said,

“As a CCD teacher, there's nothing more fulfilling than to share my faith and help a child explore their relationship with God. It's important to make religion meaningful in a child's life and to serve as a resource for the child's parents as they grow in faith as a family.”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We've seen how the rescue of Eucharistic Prayer II from the mists of history changed the style of our prayer, introducing a sleek simplicity to the prayer said aloud by the priest. Remember, before the reform of our prayer in the late 1960s, the priest whispered the words of the Roman Canon, Eucharistic Prayer I. His voice was not amplified, his back was to the people, who could only tell what was going on by a shift in his posture as he bowed and genuflected and as bells were rung to indicate his progress through the prayer.

With the emergence of the new prayers, some feared that the old prayer would be lost forever if it weren't somehow changed. The reformers asked that it be streamlined a bit by omitting the repeated "Through Christ" at the end of various intercessions, and trimming the list of somewhat obscure saints. The new edition therefore brackets parts of the two lists of saints in the prayer, unfortunately dropping all the women from the second set. The decision was also made to keep the Lord's words at the consecration exactly the same in every Eucharistic Prayer, although there is precedent for more variety. On November 2, 1968, Pope Paul VI signed off on the plan of the new Mass, and by April 1969, the publication of the revised order of Mass was announced.

Q. Re: What sins of omission are grave enough to become mortal sins?

A. The reason that the Church is not specific in this area is because it is impossible to be specific. When a sin of omission becomes grave is really a matter of proportionality and case by case judgment.

Failing to stop someone from stealing a 50 cent candy bar is wrong but not grave.

Failing to reasonably prevent a murder from taking place is most assuredly a grave omission.

It comes down to whether there was a reasonable opportunity to act to prevent something and whether that thing that we failed to stop was itself a grave matter.

The corporal works of mercy are about caring for our brothers and sisters. Once again, this is a matter of reasonableness and proportionality. The gravity of omitting them would appear to be more in our overall attitude towards our brothers and sisters rather than any one particular act.

Q. Who was the second pope? Who was the second pope and how was he given papal authority?

St. Linus was the second pope. We don't know how he was made pope, as the process in that time was lost to history. All that is important to know is that he had it,

FORGIVE OTHERS There are many kinds of alms the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us.—St. Augustine
