HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!" Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

FAMILY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/ CCD

Sunday morning – All grades after 8:30 Mass

Lent was a special time to all of us. We have been drawn closer to the heart of Jesus and encouraged to carry our own crosses with renewed strength. This was achieved by well attended daily Masses, the Stations of the Cross and our Parish Reconciliation Service. Our Lenten Parish Mission helped us to go deeper to the foundations of our faith.

Next, we entered with our suffering Savior into the spirit of the sorrowful days of Holy Week. At the Holy Triduum Liturgies we recalled Jesus' suffering and death on the cross, the Paschal mystery that is at the very heart of our Christian faith.

Finally Easter Vigil and Resurrection Sunday brought a lot of peace and joy. The cause of this joy and happiness is the fact that Jesus has not only died for us, but has risen from the dead. The new life which He has won for us should be lived not only among ourselves as we worship in church, but each day with everyone we meet - our family members, our friends and even strangers.

I am truly grateful to all who have so generously given of their time and talents to help ensure that the celebrations went well. I thank Fr. Matthew, Deacon Tom and all visiting priests for their dedicated ministry to our parish.

My sincere thanks go to our Liturgy Committee members, musicians - especially Gloria Garcia, Tessie Valera and Alvin Macadangdang; all our choir members, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, sacristans and ushers - among them our Knights of Columbus.

I also thank those who under the direction of Ronnie Ramos and Lino Poblete decorated our church so beautifully, including those who offered their donations towards Easter flowers or helped arrange them.

As our Easter celebrations continue, let us be mindful of the fact that throughout this wonderful Season, we celebrate the reality of the Lord's resurrection, its meaning, and its impact on the world. May the Glory of our Risen Savior bring to us and our loved ones PEACE, HAPPINESS and SPIRITUAL CONTENTMENT.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Jan

Over the centuries, the Church has demonstrated a wonderful ability to adopt a culture's favorite symbols and customs and assign them new meaning. Easter eggs have a very ancient pedigree: nature's perfect package, emblem of new life, dyed and decorated and given as gifts in ancient Egypt, Rome, China, and Persia. Just as the long hard winter is over, the egg bursts with promise of life and nourishment. Long ago, Christians came to see the egg not as a symbol of spring's rebirth, but of ours, and as a sign of Christ's tomb. A Polish legend says that Mary, in compassion for the soldiers at the cross, gave them eggs, but that her tears stained their shells with brilliant color. Legends have their origin in tales told around a hearth, but they often contain a profound truth. The idea of Mary, the first Christian, engaged in a merciful act of forgiveness and tenderness even in the shadow of the cross, describes the age old wish that Christ "Easter in us."

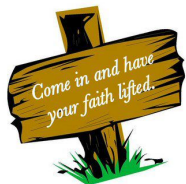

In celebrating the Feast day of Our Lady of Good Counsel on April 26, we invite everyone to join our novena to Our Lady from Thursday April 18 to April 26 after the 9AM masses.
