The First Reading for this weekend is taken from the Old Testament, from the Book of Sirach. It has also been called the Wisdom of Sirach. Similar to Proverbs, Sirach is a series of teachings recorded between 200 and 175 BC. In this Book we read, “My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts.”

The word “humility” literally means “of the earth” or in a phrase which might mean more to us “down to earth.” The good steward realizes that he or she receives everything from a loving and generous God. We are not in charge. There are so many occurrences along our life journey that are simply beyond our control. That can be a humbling recognition.

Humility is one of the most difficult traits to master. “True humility is not thinking less of yourself; it is thinking of yourself less,” is how the eminent author and theologian C.S. Lewis put it. We are important in the eyes of God. Jesus emptied Himself in our behalf. He was humility incarnate. Washing the feet of His Apostles, He comes to us at every Mass in common bread and wine.

If we practice and pursue stewardship as a way of life, we choose to let others be more important; we are not controlling; we support others in silent ways. Are we willing to let God take charge of our life? Being a steward means that.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.

Join us in FIRST FRIDAY devotion in honor of The Sacred Heart of Jesus on September 6 after 9AM mass with the recitation of the Novena prayer and Litany to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

First Friday Adoration
at 8:00 PM in the Church & Adoration Chapel

We have our FIRST SATURDAY Mass at 8:00 AM on September 7 dedicated to Blessed Virgin Mary in order to make reparation for the many sins of the world, a need that continues in our own day and time.
