LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to “Lost and Found Sunday”! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today’s Gospel suggests that we’d be wiser to admit that we’re sometimes lost. Then we’ll eventually be happily counted among Jesus’ “found,” because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, “began to complain” that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God’s amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus’ friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God “relented in punishment” and pardoned us, shouldn’t we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his “arrogance” as “foremost among sinners.” We too, happy at being “mercifully treated,” should share with everyone else Jesus’ unfailing patience.

FAMILY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/ CCD

Sunday morning – All grades after 8:30 Mass

FAITH FORMATION CCD CLASSES

Every year, our Parish provides a religious education program for students who attend public or non-Catholic private schools. Through CCD classes, we strive to support parents in their important work by continuing their religious education that begins at home. Second graders are prepared for the reception of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. Eighth graders, and older, are prepared for the reception of Sacrament of Confirmation.

We know that the parents, as primary educators, are the first line of catechists for their children. In the family, faith is shared as part of an unfolding daily life. The home, the "domestic church", provides a place for children to come to understand their faith and learn to love and live it. They learn the most from parental examples set when the family prays together, and actively participates in Mass and the Sacraments. They help their children see what a difference God has made in their own life.

The CCD classes at Our Lady of Good Counsel begin next Sunday, September 22nd, at 9:30AM at the parish hall. This allows time for families to attend Mass either before (at 8:30 a.m.) or afterwards (at 11:00 a.m.)

Our Religious Education Program is looking for volunteers who want to teach their faith and share their love of Christ with the young generation. If you feel called to this ministry, please contact our CCD Coordinator, Nadine Ramos, or call the parish office.

One of the volunteers once said,

"As a CCD teacher, there's nothing more fulfilling than to share my faith and help children explore their relationship with God. It's important to make religion meaningful in their life and to serve as a resource for the parents as they grow in faith as a family."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although New Year's Day has been fixed firmly on January 1 for several hundred years, Labor Day has the feel of a great dividing line between leisure and routine. The pace of life has since picked up, and new schedules and commitments crowd us. In the background is God's call to consider the third commandment, still life-giving and binding, to make holy the Lord's Day by worship and rest. Jews see the Sabbath, Saturday, not so much as a day of worship, but as a day of rest, a day of renewing friendship with God by delighting in the beauty of creation and the joy of family and friends. It is a day for contemplating the wonder of God's creation, but not disturbing it.

For Christians in the first three centuries, the Lord's Day, Sunday, was not for rest, but worship. It was a regular work day. People met before dawn, and after Eucharist hurried off to daily routines. Today we come to Mass, but many hurry off to essential work, not a day of rest. The Lord's Day is not the Sabbath, but we can enhance Sunday's ability to transform us if we consider embracing some Sabbath values: having a family meal, going for a walk in a beautiful place, making room in our lives to open ourselves more fully to holiness of life in Christ.

NEEDED The thing that is most needed in homes today is a family. —Anonymous

Q. "Would it be sinful for a Catholic to leave the faith and join a non-Catholic church?"

A. Doing something contrary to God's will is always objectively wrong. The Catechism reminds us that God calls everyone to the "catholic unity of the People of God" found in the Catholic Church (CCC 836, 845). This is because the Church possesses the fullness of truth and the ordinary means of grace necessary for growth in holiness. However, this does not mean that everyone who leaves the Catholic Church is necessarily guilty of sin. It depends on whether the person knows-or should know-that God wills the person to belong to the Catholic Church (CCC 846-848)'

Catholic Answer 0052qa

Some people who leave the Catholic Church may not realize what they are doing is wrong, hence they may not be held accountable. On the other hand, someone who 'WS better-i.e., who knows in his heart that God wills him to belong to Christ's Church and rejects it-may very well be held accountable. However, we ourselves cannot judge such people. Only God can truly know the heart of a person. We should always pray for these people in the hope that they will come to see the truth and return to the loving embrace of God's holy family, the Church.

Be a part of greater involvement in the renewal of parish and family life. Be a member of over a million Catholic fraternal brotherhood. Be a KNIGHT OF COLUMBUS.
