HE IS RISEN, ALLELUIA!

As the Holy Week celebrations come to their completion, I am truly grateful to all who have so generously given of their time, talents, and treasures, to help ensure that the celebrations went well. I thank Fr. Manuel and Deacon Tom for their faithful ministry to our parish. Sincere thanks goes to our Liturgy Committee, musicians, choir members, power point people, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and Altar servers. Also I thank those who helped to decorate our church, especially Ronnie Ramos and Lino Poblete. My sincere thanks go to those who brought palms, Easter flowers, or gave donations to help purchase them.

We have been drawn closer to the heart of Jesus, and have been encouraged to carry our own crosses with renewed strength. This was achieved by well attended daily Masses, the Stations of the Cross and our Parish Reconciliation Service. Our Lenten Evenings of a Spiritual Enrichment have helped us to learn more about St. Paul the Apostle and be inspired by his conversion.

During the Holy Thursday Liturgy we were truly humbled by the ceremony of the Washing of the Feet with a participation of the members of our own Parish Council of the Knights of Columbus. That night we offered our sincere thanks to God for the Holy Oils consecrated by Bishop Barber and above all for Jesus' presence in the Holy Eucharist. We also thanked our Lord for the priests serving people of God here and around the world.

Good Friday filled us with wonder and emotion when we walked the "Stations of the Cross" outside the church, and later returned at night to kiss and pay reverence to the image of Jesus' body upon the Cross.

Holy Saturday brought a lot of peace and joy. We participated in a beautiful Liturgy of the Easter Vigil when Namasivayam Anandasakaram has been baptized and together with Kendrick David and Alexander Bufete received the Sacrament of Confirmation. We all renewed our Baptismal Promises.

Q. What does the Holy Spirit do?"

A. As we proclaim in the Creed, the Holy Spirit is "the Lord, the giver of life." It was through the overshadowing of Mary by the Holy Spirit that Jesus, the only Son of God, was born into the world (Lk 1:35). It is the Holy Spirit who is at work throughout salvation history.

It was the Spirit who led the Israelites through the desert in the form of a cloud and fire (Ex 40:36-38); whose "finger" wrote the Ten Commandments upon stone tablets (Ex 31:18); who was symbolized by the dove that Noah released after the Great Flood, through which dry land was found (Gn 8:8-12); and who descended upon Jesus like a dove at His baptism and remained with Him (Mt 3:16). At Pentecost, the same Spirit rested upon the disciples as "tongues of fire" and filled them with Himself in order to lead them "into all truth" (Acts 2:3-4; Jn 14:16-17; CCC 696-701). It is the Holy Spirit who inspired the writers of Sacred Scripture. He is at work in the teachings of the Church; He brings us into communion with Christ, most especially through the sacraments; He intercedes for us through our prayer; and He is at work in the ministries and missionary life of the Church. By virtue of our baptism, it is the Spirit who dwells within each of us, inviting us to grow in holiness. He transforms us through sanctifying grace and the gifts He offers us. He is our "advocate" and source of strength on our journey toward heaven (Jn. 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7; CCC 688).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Paschal Mystery is the key to our Christian faith: the dying and rising of Jesus that is the pattern of our life. In their first steps on the road of faith, the catechumens feel the cross of glory traced over their eyes, on their lips, across their shoulders, on their ears, over their heart, and on their feet. The mystery is that even death gives way to life for those who are held in the embrace of Jesus. Today, many new Christians arise from the waters of the font. Yet the font is not the destination of their journey. The goal is Pentecost, fifty days from now, and a lifetime of praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Holy Spirit, for the sake of the world. "Neophyte," our ancient word for newly-baptized people, means "newly-planted" in Greek. If someone in your parish has just been baptized, welcome them today. The smiles on their faces and the light in the eyes is a foretaste of heaven.

The KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS and The American Wheelchair Mission will be here at all Masses on "WHEELCHAIR SUNDAY", April 14 & 15, to explain how you can help the poorest of the poor, gain mobility and freedom. Join them and Fr. Jan for this very inspirational and moving presentation.
